

Our General Philosophy

The Pembina Trails Staff Development Centre is an organization which facilitates various professional development and wellness activities for all of the staff in the division. Financial support is a joint venture of the Pembina Trails School Division, PTTA, PTANTE, EAPT and CUPE 5121.

The Staff Development Centre supports all staff by sponsoring, organizing, and coordinating workshops, by arranging facilities and purchasing resources and materials for professional development

The Staff Development Centre operates in collaboration with the Pembina Trails School Division Program Department.

Our Centre's Objective

To provide a balanced program based upon the needs and interests identified by all of our employees.

To create opportunities that facilitate discussion, reflection and exchange of ideas.

To maintain an online presence

To support autonomous professional development and personal wellness activities for all staff.

“Dream Big. Be Fearless.”
